

Recovery Programs

EdOptions Academy offers fully-accredited recovery programs designed to provide every possible option for students wishing to earn their high school diploma or GED®. With dual enrollment, at their school of record and EdOptions Academy, we enable you to keep your students and your funding in your district.

Benefits of the Programs:

- A virtual learning partner to help you retain your students and the funding that goes with them
- Robust and effective online courses
- Certified teachers specially trained in online instruction
- State-mandated exam and GED® test prep
- Alternative high school diploma options
- Extra-curricular activity participation options
- Dropouts can be transferred to EdOptions Academy without being coded as a dropout by the district

The Recovery Programs can help:

- Credit recovery
- State-mandated exam and GED® test prep
- School dropouts
- Home schooled students
- Over aged middle school students
- 5th year seniors
- Alternative Learning Centers

Partnering with schools to improve the lives of students. Client Success:

"Kate is our 27th and final graduate of the 2010–2011 year in EdOptions Online Academy program. All students in the program were classified as high risk to dropout. The final tally for this year's program [in our county] was 27 graduates. Three are still enrolled to finish next school year. Two of the graduates were former dropouts who came back. congratulations to all of you who made this possible, and my deepest gratitude for your support in this program."
