

Online Courseware to ENHANCE Your Curriculum

Courses aligned to Idaho state standards, designed to drive student achievement

Edmentum has partnered with the Idaho State Department of Education to provide statewide access to online courses for all school districts within the state. This partnership allows you to incorporate Plato Courseware's flexible, standards-based courses into your curriculum.

Whether students are above, below, or on grade level, they must have a program that takes into account each student's individual needs and learning style. Edmentum's start-to-finish online courseware solutions help you accelerate learning with engaging instruction for your students.

Our courseware includes:

- Unparalleled flexibility to meet customized courseware needs
- Robust courses built to Idaho state standards
- Award-winning courseware proven by third-party efficacy
- A broad range of core subjects, CTE, electives, world languages, and advanced courses
- Data-rich analytics with Edmentum Sensei to measure growth and identify learning patterns
- An easy-to-use learner dashboard that empowers students to monitor tasks and progress

Take advantage of the robust course selection offered to you through this partnership
